

Somewhere on a secret webpage in the wide forest of the web is a secret place where you can see a magical clearing. And somewhere between two trees there is hidden a time capsule probably with persononal important, belongings of alice.

She doesn't know yet if it will be objects or pictures, but you can click as little icons on them and they are hidden, but alice also still don't know how exactly the page will look like, she can only show then the endresult. But it will be magical and mystic.* Hopefully alice will find out what she wants to to at the end ans also figures out the codes she need, so fingers crossed.
